Vezhbovets [Wierzbowce], a small village which is located approximately 16 kilometers south southwest of Trembovlya. This village had approximately 329 homes. Approximately 50 percent of the people are of Ukrainian extraction and the others are of Polish ethnic origin.

a member of the underground was on the list to be arrested or shot if he attempted to escape. This man took the chance to escape at night but was shot down in front of his house. The secret police destroyed his home and took his family away.

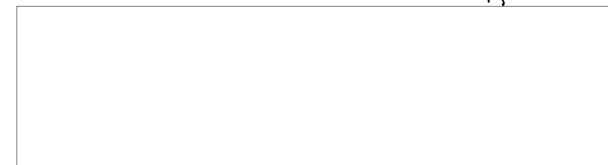

4.

The family consisted of his wife and three children. The oldest son who was approximately 17 years old was taken to Kiev. No one knows what happened to the others.

5.

underground activities in the area of Trembovlya, Vezhbovets and Chortkuv [Chortkov, Czortkow] there was a large area between the towns which was densely wooded. It would be possible for persons to hide from the authorities and live off the vegetation, water and animals which could be found in the forest.
